

Summary of Exceptions to the Regulations and Standards

1. Deviation from aseptic technique. Invasive procedures will not be performed using aseptic technique due to simulation of battlefield conditions during the instruction of Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC) using live patient models (swine). Euthanasia will be the endpoint without interruption of anesthesia/analgesia.

This exception has been approved, as per the animal use protocol, by the IACUC.